CALVARY CHAPEL HOUSTON METRO

J.D. GLASSCOCK, PASTOR

Calvary Chapel is a non-denominational church that places emphasis on the verse-by-verse teaching of the Word of God. Calvary Chapel Houston Metro is affiliated with Calvary Chapel of Costa Mesa.

It is our desire that you feel welcome to worship with us and study His word as you grow in your relationship to God.

PRAYER REQUESTS

- Prayer Partners are available immediately after the service to pray with and for you.
- You may put prayer requests in the Agape Box at the back of the sanctuary.
- During the week, you may submit prayer requests/praise reports for the Sunday bulletin through the Prayer Center on the website.
- For urgent requests, please send your prayer request to info@calvary.cc

VISITORS

- If you are visiting, we pray that you might consider this your church home.
- Please leave your name and contact info on the information table outside the sanctuary in the foyer.
- Please contact the church office at (281) 499-6301 with any questions or concerns.

OFFERINGS

- We believe it is our privilege and responsibility to give to the Lord. We also believe that where God guides, God provides.
- If you consider Calvary Chapel your church home, or feel led to give to this ministry, please leave your gift in the Agape Box near the entrance to the sanctuary.

OUTREACHES

The next outreach is set for noon November 10th at Hermann Park. All are welcome but if you cannot attend, please keep us in prayer. For more info, contact Isaac at (832) 475-8653 or Pastor Mike at (832) 860-8903.

When Paul came to Thessalonica, he said, “we were bold in our God to speak to you the gospel of God.”(1 Thess. 2:2) He mentioned it again in 2:8 & 9. Paul warned Pastor Timothy about teaching contrary to sound doctrine (1 Timothy 1:11). Paul define the “gospel of God” in Romans 1:1-4; in this, God is glorified that what He has promised, He is able to fulfill. Let our witness bring glory to Him—not our programs or abilities. Lamentations 2:17 –Pastor Mike
